

SO 1.92 Service of Process.

The United States Marshal is obligated to serve process, such as a summons and complaint, and subpoenas only in the following instances:

1. On behalf of the United States of America;
2. On behalf of a party proceeding in forma pauperis; and
3. When specially ordered by a judge of this court.