

YOU ARE HEREBY SUMMONED FOR FEDERAL JURY SERVICE LAFAYETTE DIVISION (LC)

(Lake Charles Serving: Allen, Beauregard, Calcasieu, Cameron, Jefferson Davis, and Vernon)

You are ON CALL for Jury Duty for a two-week period. Your first possible reporting date is on your summons. PLEASE NOTE: During the on-call period, all jurors must access the jury messaging system after 5 p.m. the night before your reporting date to obtain your reporting instructions. You can obtain these instructions at: www.lawd.uscourts.gov or by calling 1-866-847-4954. You will need your juror (participant) number located on your summons to access the system for your instructions.

WHERE TO REPORT

United States District Court
800 Lafayette Street, Suite 2100
Lafayette, Louisiana 70501

Reporting Time: As directed per Jury Messaging System.

Attention: Picture ID & Upper Section of Summons is Required. No cell phones, smart watches or pocket knives are allowed in the U.S. Courthouse!

Parking

You will be reimbursed $10.00 for parking for each day that you are required to report for service. Do not park in reserved parking areas or at parking meters. There is limited parking at the courthouse. Additional parking is available at the Parc du Centreville Parking Tower located at the corner of W. Vermillion and Polk Streets.

Juror Fees

A $50.00 daily attendance fee and current mileage rate round trip is paid per day if you are required to appear and do so, whether or not you are selected for a panel.

Traveling Over 70 Miles from Courthouse

Jurors traveling over 70 miles from the courthouse are eligible to stay in a hotel and may travel the day before they are instructed to report. A juror will be reimbursed a set per diem for each night. A detailed receipt is required from the hotel indicating when the juror checked in and out.
